

Prof. Graham Fleet from New South Wales University (Sydney, Australia) visited BiRDI and gave lectures to batch 34th students of the Advanced BSc Program in Biotechnology

Prof. Graham Fleet visited the Biotechnology Research and Development Institute (BiRDI) on 27/3/2011 in connection with the Advanced BSc Program in Biotechnology. He had a meeting with the Institute Directorate in the afternoon of 28/3/2011 then gave lectures in Food Microbiology to the students of batch 34th of the Advanced BSc Program in Biotechnology from 28/3 to 4/4/2011. During his visit at BiRDI, he also held a seminar entitled “Commercialization of cocoa bean fermentation”.

A lecture of Prof. Fleet to batch 34th students of the Advanced BSc Program in Biotechnology

Prof. Fleet (third, left), Prof. Godelieve Gheysen (Ghent University, Belgium - second, right), and the BiRDI Directorate and staffs